th

May

This course is a new addition to the Bankwest Foundation Community Leader Scholarship

Program

. It forms part of the Certificate in Governance for Not-for-Profits and is specifically designed for secretaries, treasurers, officers, board and committee members keen to increase their financial understanding of their NFP organisation.

This practical half-day course will develop the ability to read and relate critically on financial statements and board reports as well as addressing detailed compliance issues. It will provide an overview of financial reporting, tax and auditing requirements of organisations in the NFP sector. An essential refresher for all NFPs!

Each scholarship is valued at $585, covering all associated course fees. Scholarships are open to NFP applicants who live and work in Western Australia. Indigenous applicants are encouraged to apply.
