Scholarships for Emerging NFP Leaders

Applications close 8 December

We're looking for emerging NFP leaders to join likeminded peers for a learning opportunity of a lifetime at McKinsey Academy's Young Leaders Forum in either June or August 2021.

The Young Leaders Program (YLF) is a foundational leadership program designed to accelerate the development of emerging leaders and provide participants with the necessary skills, ways of thinking, and insights to become a better leader in a world of disruptive change.

YLF is designed to benefit emerging high potential future leaders with typically 7-12 years of work experience, who are ready to further their leadership skills. The program helps emerging leaders to lead themselves and their teams more effectively by focusing on experiential learning with group discussions and equipping them with foundational leadership skills.

CEOs of small NFPs, social enterprises or start-ups may also find the course beneficial, as they start to build their organisations and manage people.

Applicants Australia-wide are welcome to apply.
