

CLAYTON UTZ

Clayton Utz is a leading Australian law firm, known for the strength of its independent culture and its confident and engaging approach.

With a genuine commitment to client service, the firm has become trusted advisers to a range of government agencies and many of Australia's largest corporations.

The firm has a substantial commitment to making the legal system accessible through its Pro Bono practice, and are actively involved in the community through its Community Connect program.

Since 1997, the firm's pro bono practice has grown to one of the largest and most effective in Australia, focusing on low-income and disadvantaged clients who cannot obtain Legal Aid, and the not-for-profits which support them.

